

An AB Sugar company

Important Notice – Hoax Employment Opportunities:

We thank the many people who have contacted us (phone and email) in relation to a number of hoax employment opportunities being advertised on the internet by third party websites unrelated to Illovo Sugar. Please note that this activity has absolutely nothing to do with Illovo and should be considered by potential users as an internet scam aimed at gathering the personal details of hopeful job applicants.

On this basis, we encourage you to take every possible step to please safeguard your personal information when providing your details on the internet.

To protect the public in general, we would like to assure you that we have embarked upon a process in order to prevent these websites from posting adverts purporting to be from Illovo.

In the interim, if you are interested in joining Illovo, we invite you to register your CV on our one and only official Illovo Careers Portal at <https://www.illovocareers.co.za/>.

We wish you well with your future career endeavours, and thank you for the interest you have shown in Illovo.
